

St. Joseph's Academy Savita Vihar, Delhi-92

Fancy Dress Competition

Date- 17.08.26 & 18.08.26

A Fancy Dress Competition was organized for the students of Nursery and UKG with the aim of encouraging creativity, confidence, self-expression, and awareness among young learners.

Nursery – 17 August 2026

Theme: Pride of India

The Nursery students participated enthusiastically in the competition dressed as various personalities and symbols representing the Pride of India. Each child introduced themselves briefly in character and confidently presented their costume on stage.

UKG – 18 August 2026

Theme: Nature and Environment

The UKG students participated in colourful and creative costumes based on Nature and Environment. The children portrayed different elements of nature and spread meaningful messages about protecting and caring for our environment.

The event provided an enjoyable platform for the children to showcase their creativity, confidence, communication skills, and stage presence. The enthusiastic participation of the students made the competition a memorable and enriching experience.
