Hindustan Scouts and Guides Camp (Final Day)

Date:13/11/2024

Classes: 3rd to 5th

The third and final day of the Hindustan Scouts and Guides Camp was a thrilling adventure, filled with excitement, learning, and teamwork. The students from classes 3rd to 5th actively engaged in various activities that promoted skill development, leadership, and camaraderie. Following activities were conducted today :-

1. First Aid: In this activity they have taught them essential techniques for handling common injuries and emergencies. Students actively participated in demonstrations, gaining hands-on experience in each area.
2. Tent Making: In this activity students were taught how to make temporary tent with limited resources and also they were taught how to collect right source in forest. Every patrol came out to make their tent.
3. Commandos Training: In this activity , students learned to follow the commands given by the scout leaders properly and in a disciplined manner and also learned two three four hand stretching and hand signals as well.
4. Bamboo Stretcher making: In this activity, Leaders taught and explained the students how to make a stretcher with the help of the bamboos and explained its relevance that it can be used to carry a person safely and comfortably, especially in situations where it's difficult to move the person on the ground.
5. Rope knot making : Rope Knot tying is an important survival skill to learn as well. Square knots or reef knots aid in securing bandages over a wound. Bowline knots are useful for anchoring tarps to build a shelter. Students learned the ways to tie the knots using the rope.

Closing ceremony:

With these activities, the camp came to an end. The incredible journey filled with adventure, learning, and camaraderie, has left lifelong memories with our young scouts. Students also shared their experiences and their favourite moments of the camp. A heartfelt thank was extended to our scout leaders, students, teachers and everyone who made this camp possible. Words of wisdom was given by school manager Rev. Fr. Leo and motivated the kids with his valuable words and thoughts. The scout leader Mr. Rahul sir also shared his views and experiences with the students.

Overall, the camp has been a remarkable success and students have not only gained practical skills but also developed essential life skills.
